ABOUT RSA CHINA

RSA Group is one of the world's leading multinational insurance groups. With 300 years of heritage, RSA (formally known as Royal & Sun Alliance) has the capability to write business in over 136 countries with major operations in the UK, Scandinavia, Canada, Ireland, Asia, the Middle East, and Latin America. Focusing primarily on general insurance, it has around 23,000 employees, in 2009, its net written premiums were 6.7bn.

Our links with China go back to 1852 when we first operated in Shanghai. In 1992, RSA returned to China and opened a representative office in Beijing, becoming the first European insurer to set up an office in China. In 1998, RSA became the first British insurance company granted an operating license in China. On 8th October 1998, RSA officially opened its branch in Shanghai, the ceremony was hosted by the former British Prime Minister – Tony Blair.

After 10 years of writing business as a branch in Shanghai, in 2008, RSA launched its new subsidiary, Sun Alliance Insurance (China) Limited to drive forward its nationwide expansion. In Oct 2009, RSA China opened its Beijing Branch. In Jul 2011, RSA Jiangsu Branch opened, and going forward we will look to expand across China with new offices in key cities.

Our position in China is as a Multi-Specialist Insurer providing insurance and risk management solutions to a range of local, foreign and joint venture clients. Our key areas of focus include property, marine cargo, casualty, renewable energy, construction & engineering.
