

Renewable Energy – ClearSky™ Solution

RSA is recognized as the Global Renewable Energy Insurance Market Leader, by delivering a unique customer proposition, through superior technical capability.

- Over 25 years experience, providing global renewable energy insurance solutions for wind, solar, small hydro and bio energy
- Protecting customer interests at every stage of development, from planning and construction through to operation
- We deliver market leading expertise on a global scale and distribute our products to customers across the world

Product Offering & Technical Capability – Wind Products

Our product covers the full customer experience from plan to operation. We provide a Cradle To Grave solution with additional flexibility to meet a range of requirement from the customers.

RSA contributes to setting standards for wind turbine design, erection, operation and maintenance.

Focusing on what matters for our customers, we provide

- Seamless cover from planning through to operation
- Risk management advice from our specialist engineers
- Insurance protection against a wide range of risks from project delay & mechanical breakdown to storm damage and lightning strikes
- Fast & efficient 24 hour claims service - getting you back in business as quickly as possible

We provide tailored package – allowing flexibility to suit the clients needs and type of business

- Marine and Marine DSU
- CEAR and DSU
- Operational cover

Why choose RSA Renewable energy insurance?

- Our Expertise – leading technical expertise and know how
- Unique risk solutions– ClearSky Solution™ covering from planning through construction to operation
- Risk Management- access to global capability in RM, delivering professional risk recommendation and improvement advises based on our rich experience both in RM and Claims
- Our Underwriting & Claim – both in T&C setting and meet or exceed customer's expectation, our Underwriters and claim handlers work together and efficiently settle all the queries from the clients

If you have any enquiry, please contact us at 86 21 3855 4888